

Manpower 2009 - I Can, I Will, I Must - Bishop Lester Love

If you give it away, God will multiply it, and give it back.

Who is your leader – who do you follow?

You are called to serve, to be an armor bearer.

God is Love and all real love music came from God.

Are you in love with God?

How do you tell God you love him?

Just Call His Name and He Will Be There.

Philippians 4:11 – 13 – I Can

Matthew 27:62 – 63 – I Will

Luke 2:49 – I Must

I Can – I Will – I Must

Dreams are the common thread among us.

We all want to be a good success.

Everyone wants to be blessed.

Your enemies give you purpose.

Everyone has faced disappointments.

Do you have a cycle of not finishing?

Time and Disappointments will keep you from your Dreams.

Change is temporary – Transformation is eternal.

Never again!

You are born, you live, you die, you live again

What season are you in?

You are being recycled

Nine is the final number.

What does not kill you will make you stronger

You were always meant to be more than you are.

You can regardless of the trial.

You can be shut down for a season and have power restored.

How can I get out of this situation?

Do not let your enemies know they are being negative.

Paul came out of prison leaping and dancing and singing – Acts 16.

“I Can” is based on personal perception.

“I Will” is based on perspective. Turn your swag on.

“I Must” is based on reality

Do you intend to be blessed?

Frustration can be a good thing based on how you use it

Is your situation going through a transformation? You must be willing to experience the pain of transformation.

I CAN

I WILL

I MUST
